To Be Held On June 4, 2003

This Proxy Statement is being furnished to the stockholders of Big 5 Sporting Goods Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Company's board of directors for use at the Annual Meeting of the Company's stockholders to be held on June 4, 2003 at 10:00 a.m. local time at the Marriott Manhattan Beach, 1400 Parkview Avenue, Manhattan Beach, California 90266-3714, and at any adjournments or postponements thereof (the "Annual Meeting").

At the Annual Meeting, holders of the Company's common stock, $0.01 par value per share, will be asked to vote upon: (i) the election of two Class A directors to the Company's board of directors, each to hold office until the 2006 annual meeting of stockholders (and until each such director's successor shall have been duly elected and qualified); (ii) the ratification of the appointment of KPMG LLP as the Company's independent auditors for 2003; and (iii) any other business that properly comes before the Annual Meeting.

This Proxy Statement and the accompanying Proxy Card are first being mailed to the Company's stockholders on or about April 28, 2003. The address of the principal executive offices of the Company is 2525 East El Segundo Boulevard, El Segundo, California 90245.

ANNUAL MEETING

Record Date; Outstanding Shares; Quorum

Only holders of record of the Company's common stock at the close of business on April 21, 2003 (the "Record Date") will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. As of the close of business on the Record Date, there were 22,663,947 shares of common stock outstanding and entitled to vote, held of record by 269 stockholders. A majority, or 11,331,974, of these shares, present in person or represented by proxy, will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting. Each of the Company's stockholders is entitled to one vote, in person or by proxy, for each share of common stock standing in such stockholder's name on the books of the Company as of the Record Date on any matter submitted to the stockholders.

Voting of Proxies; Votes Required

Stockholders are requested to complete, date, sign and return the accompanying Proxy Card in the enclosed envelope. All properly executed, returned and unrevoked Proxy Cards will be voted in accordance with the instructions indicated thereon. Executed but unmarked Proxy Cards will be voted FOR the election of each director nominee listed on the Proxy Card and FOR the ratification of the appointment of KPMG LLP as the Company's independent auditors. The Company's board of directors does not presently intend to bring any business before the Annual Meeting other than that referred to in this Proxy Statement and specified in the Notice of the Annual Meeting. By signing the Proxy Cards, stockholders confer discretionary authority on the proxies (who are persons designated by the board of directors) to vote all shares covered by the Proxy Cards in their discretion on any other matter that may properly come before the Annual Meeting, including any motion made for adjournment of the Annual Meeting.

Any stockholder who has given a proxy may revoke it at any time before it is exercised at the Annual Meeting by (i) delivering a written revocation notice to the Secretary of Big 5 Sporting Goods Corporation, 2525 East El Segundo Boulevard, El Segundo, California 90245, (ii) by submitting a subsequent valid Proxy Card or (iii) attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person (although attendance at the Annual Meeting will not, by itself, revoke a proxy). Any notice of revocation sent to the Company must include the stockholder's name.

Elections of directors is determined by a plurality of shares of common stock represented in person or by proxy and voting at the Annual Meeting.

Abstentions; Broker Non-Votes; Withheld Votes

A stockholder may vote to "abstain" on the ratification of the appointment of KPMG LLP as the Company's independent auditors and the other proposals which may properly come before the Annual Meeting. If a stockholder votes to "abstain," such stockholder's shares will be counted as present at the meeting for purposes of determining a quorum on all matters and for purposes of calculating the vote, but will not be considered to be votes cast with respect to such matters. If an executed proxy is returned by a broker holding shares in street name that indicates that the broker does not have discretionary authority as to certain shares to vote on one or more matters, such shares will be considered present at the meeting for purposes of determining a quorum on all matters, but will not be considered to be votes cast with respect to such matters. Therefore, abstentions and broker non-votes will have no effect on the outcome of the election of directors or the ratification of the appointment of KPMG LLP as the Company's independent auditors. In addition, in the election of directors, a stockholder may withhold such stockholder's vote. Withheld votes will be excluded from the vote and will have no effect on the outcome of such election.

Solicitation of Proxies and Expenses

This proxy solicitation is made by the Company, and the Company will bear the cost of the solicitation of proxies from its stockholders. The directors, officers and employees of the Company may solicit proxies by mail, telephone, telegram, letter, facsimile or in person. Following the original mailing of the proxies and other soliciting materials, the Company will request that brokers, custodians, nominees and other record holders forward copies of the Proxy Statement and other soliciting materials to persons for whom they hold shares of common stock and request authority for the exercise of proxies. In such cases, the Company will reimburse such record holders for their reasonable expenses.

PROPOSAL 1

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

General

The board of directors consists of three classes, consisting of Class A directors, Class B directors and Class C directors. The terms of office of the Class A directors, Class B directors and Class C directors expire in the year 2003 (Class A), the year 2004 (Class B) and the year 2005 (Class C). Each director holds office until such director's successor is duly elected and qualified. Directors elected to succeed those directors whose terms then expire will be elected for a three-year term of office.

Only members of Class A, G. Michael Brown and John G. Danhagl, are nominees for election to the board of directors at the Annual Meeting. Each Class A director elected will hold office until the 2006 annual meeting of stockholders (and until such director's successor shall have been duly elected and qualified). Both of the nominees currently serve on the board of directors of the Company.

Each proxy received will be voted for the election of the persons named below, unless the stockholder signing such proxy withholds authority to vote for one or more of these nominees in the manner described in the proxy. Although it is not contemplated that any nominee named below will decline or be unable to serve as a director, in the event any nominee declines or is unable to serve as a director, the proxies will be voted by the proxy holders as directed by the board of directors. Broker non-votes in the election of directors will not be counted as voting at the meeting and therefore will not have an effect on the election of the nominees listed below. Withheld votes will also have no effect on the election of the nominees. The two nominees receiving the highest number of votes from holders of shares of common stock represented and voting at the Annual Meeting will be elected to the board of directors.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE "FOR" THE ELECTION OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS' NOMINEES.

Except as set forth below, there are no family relationships between any director, nominee or executive officer and any other director, nominee or executive officer of the Company. Except as set forth in "Certain Relationships and Related Transactions — Amended and Restated Stockholders Agreement," there are no arrangements or understandings between any director, nominee or executive officer and any other person pursuant to which such person has been or will be selected as a director and/or executive officer of the Company (other than arrangements or understandings with any such director, nominee and/or executive officer acting in such person's capacity as such). Except as described below, there are no material proceedings to which any of the following is a party adverse to the Company or any of its subsidiaries, or has a material interest that is adverse to the Company or any of its subsidiaries: any director, nominee, officer or affiliate of the Company, any owner of record or beneficial holder of more than five percent (5%) of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock or any associate of any such director, nominee, officer, affiliate or security holder.

Board Meetings and Committees

The board of directors of the Company had three meetings during the fiscal year ended December 29, 2002 and acted by unanimous written consent on six occasions. During the fiscal year ended December 29, 2002, each incumbent director of the Company attended at least 75% of the aggregate of (i) the total number of meetings of the board of directors, and (ii) the total number of meetings of the committees on which such director served (during the periods that such director served).

The board of directors consists of three classes: Class A directors, Class B directors and Class C directors. The terms of office of the Class A directors, Class B directors and Class C directors expire in the year 2003 (Class A), the year 2004 (Class B) and the year 2005 (Class C). Thereafter, directors will be elected to three-year terms. Each director holds office until such director's successor is duly elected and qualified.

The board of directors has a standing audit committee, which is chaired by Sandra N. Bane and currently consists of Ms. Bane and Messrs. Brown and Danhaki. Ms. Bane and Mr. Brown are "independent" as that term is defined in Marketplace Rule 4200(a)(14) of the National Association of Securities Dealers' listing standards. However, Mr. Danhaki may not be considered to be "independent," as a result of the fact that he may be deemed to be an affiliate of Green Equity Investors, L.P., the Company's principal stockholder. Notwithstanding Mr. Danhaki's lack of independence, the board of directors has determined that Mr. Danhaki's presence on the audit committee is beneficial to the Company because of his extensive experience with respect to sophisticated financial matters. In addition, Mr. Danhaki has developed a thorough understanding of the Company's financial accounting as a result of his several years of service as a director of the Company.

On June 24, 2002, in connection with the Company's initial public offering, the board of directors adopted a written charter for the audit committee, which is attached as Appendix A to this Proxy Statement. The Company intends to amend the audit committee charter to comply with the requirements of the Sarbanes-

Table of Contents

Oxley Act of 2002, as well as the requirements of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the National Association of Securities Dealers once such requirements are in final form.

Among other things, the functions of the audit committee are to:

- review and discuss with the Company's management and independent auditors the Company's audited financial statements, including the adequacy and effectiveness of the Company's internal accounting controls;
- discuss with the Company's management and independent auditors any significant changes to the Company's accounting principles;
- recommend, on an annual basis, to the board of directors the appointment of the Company's independent auditors;
- review the independence and performance of the Company's independent auditors; and
- review from time to time and make recommendations with respect to the Company's policies relating to management conduct and oversee procedures and practices to ensure compliance with such policies.

The audit committee held two meetings during the fiscal year ended December 29, 2002.

The board of directors has a standing compensation committee, which is chaired by G. Michael Brown and currently consists of Mr. Brown and Ms. Bane. Both Mr. Brown and Ms. Bane are "non-employee directors" within the meaning of Rule 16b-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act") and "outside directors" within the meaning of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code. Among other things, the function of the compensation committee is to review and recommend to the board of directors the compensation and benefits of the Company's executive employees. The compensation committee was established in June 2002 in connection with the Company's initial public offering. The compensation committee did not hold any meetings during the fiscal year ended December 29, 2002.

The board of directors does not have a nominating or similar committee.

Compensation of Directors

Directors who are also employees of the Company are compensated as officers of the Company and receive no additional compensation for serving as directors. Non-employee directors receive an annual fee of $15,000 for service on the board of directors, plus $1,000 for each meeting of the board of directors or any committee that they attend. Directors are also reimbursed for all out-of-pocket expenses incurred in attending such meetings. Mr. Danhaki and Dr. Miller each have agreed to waive their directors' fees.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

Until June 24, 2002, the board of directors as a whole performed the functions that it delegated to the compensation committee following its formation in connection with the Company's initial public offering, and all of the members of the board of directors participated in deliberations concerning executive compensation. For the remainder of fiscal year 2002, the compensation committee consisted of G. Michael Brown, as chairman, and Sandra N. Bane, neither of whom is or has been an officer or employee of the Company or its subsidiary, Big 5 Corp. No interlocking relationship existed between the board of directors or the compensation committee and the board of directors or compensation committee of any other company.

Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation

The compensation committee of the board of directors, which is composed entirely of independent outside directors, is responsible for making recommendations to the board of directors regarding the annual salaries and other compensation of the officers of the Company and providing assistance and recommendations with respect to compensation plans. The compensation committee also has the authority to administer and make award grants under the Company's 1997 Management Equity Plan and 2002 Stock Incentive Plan.

Table of Contents

The Company's compensation policy is based on linking executive compensation to the Company's objectives of growth through increased earnings and maximizing stockholder value. The compensation committee monitors compensation levels for comparable retail companies and evaluates annual compensation on the basis of these compensation trends and the performance of the Company to determine whether adjustments to base salary or bonuses, or both, are appropriate.

The compensation committee believes that stock ownership by key executives provides valuable performance incentives and helps to align the interests of key executives with the interests of the Company's stockholders in maximizing stockholder value. While certain executive officers, including the Company's Chief Executive Officer and President, have significant equity ownership in the Company, the compensation committee believes that additional option grants are appropriate to further align the interests of the Company's executive officers with the interests of the Company's stockholders.

To facilitate these objectives, the Company adopted the 2002 Stock Incentive Plan, pursuant to which the Company may grant stock options to executives (as well as other employees and directors). The terms of the stock options grants are determined by the compensation committee based upon the position and responsibilities of the key executive, as well as a review of competitive equity compensation of officers of comparable retail companies.

In accordance with the terms of his employment agreement, in 2002, Steven G. Miller received a base salary of $375,000 and a bonus of $585,000 based on comparable compensation packages provided to executives in similarly situated companies and the compensation committee's subjective assessment of his performance. In addition, Mr. Miller received a one-time bonus of $368,550 in connection with the Company's initial public offering, which was funded by a reduction in the redemption price of the Company's preferred stock. Mr. Miller also received specified perquisites.

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code generally disallows a tax deduction to publicly-traded corporations for compensation in excess of $1,000,000 paid for any fiscal year to certain executive officers, including the chief executive officer. However, the statute exempts qualifying performance-based compensation from the deduction limit if certain requirements are met. The Company became subject to Section 162(m) as the result of the completion of its initial public offering in June 2002. Although the Company believes that, in general, its compensation practices should be cost-efficient with respect to taxes, the Company reserves the authority to award compensation that is not deductible under Section 162(m) to the Company's executive officers to the extent consistent with other compensation objectives. The one-time bonuses paid by the Company to its executive officers were not subject to the Section 162(m) deduction limitation.

Employment Agreements

The Company has employment agreements with Steven G. Miller and Robert W. Miller.

Steven G. Miller. Steven G. Miller's employment agreement provides that he will serve as Chairman of the Board of Directors, Chief Executive Officer and President for a term of four years from any given date, such that there shall always be a minimum of at least four years remaining under his employment agreement. The employment agreement provides for Steven G. Miller to receive an annual base salary of $375,000, subject to annual increase based on comparable compensation packages provided to executives in similarly situated companies, and to participate in a bonus plan based on standards to be established by the compensation committee. Steven G. Miller is also entitled to specified perquisites. In addition, as long as Steven G. Miller serves as an officer, the Company will use its best efforts to ensure that he continues to serve on the Company's board of directors and on the board of directors of the Company's wholly-owned subsidiary, Big 5 Corp.

If Steven G. Miller's employment is terminated due to his death, the employment agreement provides for accelerated vesting of options that would have been exercisable during half of the remaining scheduled term of the employment agreement and the continuation of family medical benefits for the remaining scheduled term of the employment agreement. Certain Relationships and Related Transactions

Relationship With Pacific Enterprises, Thrifty Corporation and Rite Aid Corp.

Prior to September 1992, the predecessor to what is now the Company's wholly owned operating subsidiary was a wholly owned subsidiary of Thrifty Corporation, which in turn was a wholly owned subsidiary of Pacific Enterprises. In December 1996, Thrifty Corporation was acquired by Rite Aid Corp.

As a result of the Company's prior relationship with Thrifty Corporation and its affiliates, the Company continues to maintain certain relationships with Rite Aid Corp. and Sempra Energy, the successor to Pacific Enterprises. These relationships include continuing indemnification obligations of Sempra Energy to the Company for certain environmental matters and obligations under ERISA arising out of Pacific Enterprises' prior ownership of all of the capital stock of Thrifty Corporation and the predecessor to what is now the Company's wholly owned subsidiary, including (1) indemnification for certain environmental liability costs incurred by the Company resulting from a contravention of applicable law relating to the prior and then existing use and ownership of the properties and assets (including all real estate) previously owned by Pacific Enterprises and (2) indemnification for certain liability costs incurred by the Company resulting from a contravention by Pacific Enterprises of any applicable law relating to benefit plans sponsored by Thrifty PayLess, Inc. or Thrifty Corporation. The indemnification obligations of Sempra Energy relating to environmental liabilities, which pursuant to their terms are limited in scope and aggregate maximum dollar amounts, will continue until September 25, 2012, while the indemnification obligations relating to Sempra Energy's obligations under ERISA will continue until the expiration of all applicable statutes of limitations. Green Equity Investors III, L.P., an affiliate of Leonard Green & Partners, L.P., holds convertible preferred stock in Rite Aid Corp. that, if converted, would represent approximately 11% of its outstanding stock.

Conflicts of Interest

Green Equity Investors, L.P., an affiliate of Leonard Green & Partners, L.P., holds a significant equity interest in the Company and also holds an equity interest in Gart Sports Company, one of the Company's competitors. John G. Danhagl, an executive officer and equity owner of Leonard Green & Partners, L.P., currently serves on the Company's board of directors. Jonathan Sokoloff and Jonathan Seiffer, both partners of Leonard Green & Partners, L.P. and former members of the Company's board of directors, currently serve on Gart Sports Company's board of directors. Mr. Danhagl may from time to time have conflicts of interest with respect to certain matters affecting the Company. All of these potential conflicts may not be resolved in a manner that is favorable to the Company. The Company believes it is impossible to predict the precise circumstances under which future potential conflicts may arise and therefore intends to address potential conflicts on a case-by-case basis. Under Delaware law, directors have a fiduciary duty to act in good faith and in what they believe to be in the best interest of the corporation and its stockholders. Such duties include the duty to refrain from impermissible self-dealing and to deal fairly with respect to transactions in which the directors, or other companies with which such directors are affiliated, have an interest.

Management Services Agreement

The Company entered into a management services agreement with Leonard Green & Associates, L.P., an affiliate of Leonard Green & Partners, L.P., on November 13, 1997. Pursuant to the management services agreement, the Company agreed to pay an annual fee of $333,333 to Leonard Green & Associates, L.P. for management, consulting and financial planning services. These services included regular consulting services regarding the status of the financial markets as they related to specialty retailers and advice on financing alternatives, note repurchases and potential refinancings. The Company also agreed to pay reasonable and customary fees to Leonard Green & Associates, L.P. for services rendered in connection with any major financial transactions. In addition to the fees the Company paid for these services, the Company also paid reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with rendering such services. Although the agreement did not provide either party the right to terminate prior to the stated expiration date of May 31, 2005, whether as the result of a change of control or otherwise, Leonard Green & Associates, L.P. and the Company agreed to terminate the management services agreement, effective upon the consummation of the Company's initial public offering in June 2002. In connection with this termination, the Company paid Leonard Green & Associates, L.P. a termination fee of $875,000, which represents a discounted value of the payments that the Company would otherwise have been required to make through the stated expiration date of the management services agreement.

Amended and Restated Stockholders Agreement

The Company has an amended and restated stockholders agreement with Green Equity Investors, L.P., Robert W. Miller and Steven G. Miller. Under the amended and restated stockholders agreement, Green Equity Investors, L.P. may designate one member, currently Mr. Danhagl, for nomination to the board of directors so long as it beneficially owns at least 5% of the Company's outstanding shares of common stock. Robert W. Miller and Steven G. Miller have agreed to vote all of their common stock in favor of electing Green Equity Investors, L.P.'s nominee. If Robert W. Miller or Steven G. Miller is nominated for election to the board of directors, Green Equity Investors, L.P. has agreed to vote all of its shares in favor of electing both of them. The amended and restated stockholders agreement also modifies Green Equity Investors, L.P. previously-granted registration rights. The amended and restated stockholders agreement terminates when Green Equity Investors, L.P. beneficially owns less than 5% of the Company's outstanding common stock.

Redemption of Series A Preferred Stock

On July 2, 2002, the Company used a portion of the net proceeds from its initial public offering to redeem all of the Company's outstanding shares of Series A preferred stock. Green Equity Investors, L.P. and its affiliates owned 309,071 of the 350,000 outstanding shares of Series A preferred stock and received approximately $60.6 million upon redemption of such shares.

Purchases of Common Stock in the Company's Initial Public Offering

Green Equity Investors, L.P. and Grand Avenue Associates, L.P., both affiliates of Leonard Green & Partners, L.P., purchased an aggregate of 350,000 shares of the Company's common stock at the initial public offering price of $13.00 per share.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Based solely upon a review of reports furnished to the Company during or with respect to the year ended December 29, 2002 pursuant to Rule 16a-3(e) under the Exchange Act, all required reports on Form 3, Form 4 and Form 5 were timely filed by the Company's directors, executive officers and 10% stockholders.

- A director who is employed as an executive of another entity if any of the Corporation’s executives serve on that entity’s compensation committee.
- Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board may, under exceptional and limited circumstances, appoint to the Audit Committee one individual who is not “independent” as defined above and is not a current employee or an immediate family member of such employee if the Board determines in its business judgment that membership on the Audit Committee by the individual is required by the Corporation’s and shareholder’s best interests, and the Board discloses, in the next annual proxy statement subsequent to such determination, the nature of the relationship and the reasons for that determination.
- Each member shall be able to read and understand fundamental financial statements, including a company’s balance sheet, income statement, and cash flow statement, or shall become able to do so within a reasonable period of time after his or her appointment to the Audit Committee.
- At least one member of the Audit Committee must have past employment experience in finance or accounting, requisite professional certification in accounting, or any other comparable experience or
